

Juanita Deneen Lawson

April 4, 1965 - March 7, 2019

Obituary

Juanita Deneen Lawson was born April 9, 1965, to Moses Golden and the late Deloice Lawson Jones. Juanita was known by her family and friends as "Nita Boo," because of her kind and outgoing personality, which always landed friends and favor. So she was everybody's "boo."

She grew up in Monroe, LA where she attended various schools. She started her early adult life as a caterer in Monroe and also worked in Tampa, FL., where she later moved. She became a member of Deeper Life Ministries. She dedicated her life to the Lord and went into ministerial training. She was active in ministry for a number of years and also served on the pastoral staff. She loved God and loved serving God's people. One of her proudest and happiest of times was when she was working in the Church Office as an Encourager for other women who battled drug addiction. She literally served in every capacity in the Church which she knew was her haven of peace and rest from her own struggles.

Juanita departed this life on Thursday, March 7, 2019 at the Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, TX. Juanita leaves to cherish the precious memories of: one brother, Nicholas Trever Lawson; one sister, Leteisha Lawson. Four daughters: Courtney, Alexandria, Lekendria, and Jessica Lawson. Two aunts: Thelma Scott (Jerry); Linda Trimble (Warren); Two Uncles: Sammy Lawson (Dorothy); Raymond Lawson (Hattie). Nine grandchildren and a host of family and friends.
