“ Mrs. Barbara was one of the strongest and wisest Christian women I have ever had the privilege of knowing. She was so full of knowlege and so willing to share it. I loved listening to her talk about when she was raising her children, and some of the things that life alloted her on this earth; talking about what her Christian walk had required of her at times. She was truly an inspiration to me and I will forever be grateful to have known her.

“ To the Sharp family in loving memory of Aunt Barb: She will be missed and there really are not words to say. We are very happy that she is out of suffering and difficulty and resting in peace with God and her other siblings. God bless you. Keep the faith. Remember her teaching and everything will be alright! We love you.
