Eric "Bo" Robinson was born March 31, 1959 in Monroe, Louisiana to the proud parents of Andrew and Beverly Robinson. He was born into a large family, having 12 uncles and 8 aunts and many other family members who adored, loved and spoiled him. Each had their own story to tell about him. He made life exciting for the whole family. He was baptized into Christ at an early age at Marx Street Church of Christ, Monroe, Louisiana. Eric enjoyed his new life in Christ and became very active in the Church.

Eric was small but well built and strong. He was a graduate of Richwood High School, Class of 1977. He was very athletic and was on the football and track teams. Because of his speed he earned the name "Bo Quick." He was gifted in art and was president of the art club. He sang in the choir and was a member of the ROTC. He, along with another student, was voted most talented.

Eric was employed at Tri-State-Dental Laboratory as a Dental Technician where his father Mr. Andrew "A.C." Robinson was co-owner before his passing in September 2013.
