

Mr. George Washington Jr.

November 25, 1946 - July 24, 2015

God-fearing, Eager, Opinionated, Respectful, Generous, Earnest...all described George Washington, Jr. As a man of God, family and service, he truly believed in living a life where his works would speak for him. He greeted everyone with a smile and went above the call of duty to assist anyone. He was a faithful and diligent worker in his church, Riverside Baptist, with City Wide Ushers and Miller's Funeral Home.

A kind-hearted, hard-working, loyal, and loving father, mentor, co-worker and friend, you were indeed. May you rest in the loving arms of Our Heavenly Father.

“ From the first day I opened my eyes and saw you I could already see that you was going to be the greatest grandpa any grandchild could ever ask for. Every since i done grew up you have been there for my any time I needed something. And i would like to say thank you for being there when I needed you to be there and being my shoulder to lean on even at my worst times. Any time we needed something you would get it sometimes you'll be like i can't afford it right now then we'll be like okay then when Christmas come or you come up on some money you would get it for us then and I would like to take the time out and tell you THANK YOU for everything you have done for me my whole life sometimes we would have our ups and downs but that was very ware. We had some good times and want to thank you for being by my-side every step of the way. Every time I saw you, you would always have that big smile on your face sometimes when you would get upset you don't even stay mad no more than 3 Minutes. I would also like to wish you a HAPPY BIRTHDAY. LOVE YOU GRANDPA...

Love you Grandpa, XOXOXXOXOXOXOXOXOOXO

“ to the family and friends of the late mr.george wasington;l,tawny kelley had the blessed opportunity to know 'mr.g'as i,tawny affectionately called him.i miss his smile but i know that that same smile that he had on earth he still has it over in that city called heaven,only it is much wider and broader,he's really grinning now.my fondest memory is when he opened up the door at his house at 4o'clock in the morning trying to help tawny find her stuff that had been stolen.he talked to me about how the centerions were gambling off jesus's coat while he is lying down his life for us.in other words;the centerions were gambling and not knowing that the 9th hour was upon them.no man took the life of jesus,he laid it down and that brought me out of the casino and the gambling shacks.god used him to bring me out of bondage and set me free.i miss him but i will see him again,to tafferny and t,j and seane kelley and andrew and the secretary of miller funeral home'we were all so blessed and so was the military,the communitie,riverside baptist church and miller funeral home.as we stop and pause as we go about our daily busy lives,lets take the time out and just remember 'mr.g'and may the work that he done,speak for him.now thats its all over,he is wearing a crown,oh,if we could see mr,george now!hes smiling down on us.the question is will we meet him and those gone on before at the gate?for there is no night there.much love to his family as well as miller funeral home.funeral attendant;ms.tawny lynn kelley thorpe;funerals and more gradute of stratford career institute mortuary science

“ Around midnight my Mr Washington as I fondly called him slipped into a deep sleep and shortly thereafter moved on from this life into the fullness of the glorious presence of Christ and all who have gone before him in faith (hello & love to Bumpy) it would be his desire that all would know the power of Christ and his Life-changing love and God's mercy and grace. I will miss his million dollar smile as we meet for details on Saturday, his humor as we made the best of everyday count and him as a neighbor and Friend. May God be pleased with his families (Riverside, Miller staff, ULM, & Fiholi community) during his transition. He has earned his crown. Rest In Peace Mr Washington. Forever in my heart & prayers. Work just won't be the same without you. Keep an eye out for us, you will ALWAYS be with us. TJ Stevenson & family

“ My heartfelt condolences are extended to the Washington Family. We have loss a "giant" of a man here at Miller's Funeral Home and within the community. He was a role model for me (and many others) at the funeral home. I am saddened by his transition, but I know that he will be looking down on us with that big smile that he always displayed. Your family will continue to be in my prayers.
