“ Mrs Wagner was my first teacher, first grade at Mount Sini (the Mound) church. close to my home and the next year we all moved to the white folks school at Alto where they also left us their old books with no more room to write your name on the inside cover. Gertrude Wagner did not spare the rod and she was teacher, mother, father, aunt.....whip your ass and make you take the whip ass note home to your mama but still everyone loved her. REST IN PEACE

That is certainly a true store. The CB only teacher I know who would whip you for missing one spelling word and send a note home by you to your parents.

Mrs. Wagner was my cousin best friend, Mrs. Z. Perkins at Alto. A wonderful teacher.

*Mrs. Wagner was a certainly a legend to our extended family. She is my sister -in-law's (Jackie) mother! She never bit her tongue and spoke the truth. My visits with her were GRAND! And her food was awesome! May the God who "binds up the brokenhearted" and "comforts all who mourn" sustain your family during this challenging time. Isaiah 61:1,2 **

Mrs Wagner was always extremely sweet, kind and caring to me. May she rest in peace.
