“ I remember this young woman I meet when she was only a child. One who attended her early years at “The Rose” where her “Granny” as she would call her was a faithful member as well. (Gladys Mason) Our lives crossed again through The Big Brother Big Sister program at “The Wellspring” and working with her during VBS. Jacquiela and I formed a relationship of love, respect and caring. During our many talks and e-mails a lot of words were shared and we would laugh out loud at some of the things we talked about. Jacquiela was a dedicated hard worker who enjoyed life. She lived her life and I am encouraged by her faith, her gth and her courage. She fought the fight, however she WON the BATTLE! May her works be not forgotten - Today will never come again. Be a blessing. Be a friend. Encourage someone. Take time to care. Let your words heal and not wound. Jacquiela has left a legacy that all of us can attest to and help to carry it on. Praying that God continue to grant the family Perfect Peace doing this time.

Jacquiela was an inspiration to many and a strong woman of faith. I will always remember her as being a strong advocate for children especially those facing adversity in life.

“ Sister Jennifer and family Carl and I send our condolences to all of those close to "Punkin". Her mom shared so much of her progress that we in our Sunday School Class felt we were a part of family. We'll keep you all in our prayers that the Holy Spirit will bring you comfort as only He can. The family at PHBC love and support you during this special time of transition,

“ Over the past several years Punkin and I have really had a chance to grow close. Not only were we cousins but we were good friends. The most beautiful memory I have of her is carrying our children together and having many conversations about motherhood. My baby Conner and Kaiden are 1 week apart. When she was scheduled to have Kaiden we talked about Tyson and how he thought caring for a newborn would be easy. After Kaiden was born I asked her if daddy was still thinking it was easy. Her response was "ooh Tiffany! His world has been rocked! That first night Kaiden constipated and stayed up all night crying. I thought he was going to cry too!!! We both laughed so hard at that. I will miss those conversations. I love you Punkin and I miss you so much. Rest in Peace and we will forever celebrate the memories we had with you!!
