“ Rev. Johnson was indeed a servant of the Lord. In May, 1988, my mother became seriously ill and was hospitalized in Winnsboro, LA. Around midnight she went into a comma. I traveled to the hospital from Monroe to Winnsboro to get there as quickly as possible. That same morning, around 5 am, there was Rev. Johnson who had also driven from Monroe to be with me and my family through this challenging time.

Reverend Johnson was a very nice person. I enjoyed the many conversations. Prayers for his daughter and other family members.
